This bibliography of 942 items, the first in a continuing series, is an attempt to bring together a list of all the documents relating to English teaching which have been processed into the ERIC system and which are available from the ERIC Document Reproduction Service. It includes documents from the "Office of Education Research Reports: 1956-1965," from the "Catalog of Selected Documents on the Disadvantaged," and from the issues of "Research in Education," November 1966 through December 1968. Titles of documents are arranged under 12 subject headings: General, The Teaching Profession, Curriculum, Oral Expression and Listening, Written Expression, Language, Literature, Humanities, Dramatic Arts, Film Study, Teaching English as a Native Language, and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. An author index is provided. Citations for documents include full ordering information. (LH)

P R E F A C E

The present bibliography is the first in a continuing series to be issued by the ERIC Clearinghouse on the Teaching of English. It is an attempt to bring together in one place a list of all the documents relating to English teaching which have been processed into the ERIC system and which are available from the ERIC Document Reproduction Service. This list includes documents from the Office of Education Research Reports: 1956-1965, from the Catalog of Selected Documents on the Disadvantaged, and from the issues of the USOE abstract journal, Research in Education (RIE), November 1966 through December 1968.

Because each ERIC clearinghouse covers a discrete area of the educational field, the acquisitions of several clearinghouses (e.g., Reading, Early Childhood, Disadvantaged, Junior College, etc.) are of possible interest to the English teacher. These acquisitions have been announced in so many issues of RIE and other USOE publications that the English teacher does not now have any convenient way of finding the documents in his area which are available from EDRS. Indexes to RIE are, of course, quite helpful. They are, however, contained in several volumes and do not cover ERIC acquisitions prior to November 1966.

This bibliography has two principal finding aids: a classification system based on a taxonomy devised by an ad hoc committee of NCTE bibliographers, and an author index. Because it is neither narrowly specialized nor comprehensive of all extant English-related books, articles, and research reports, it is a bibliography for browsing, designed to answer the question, What is available from ERIC on the subject of teaching English?

The citations for the documents include, in brackets, full ordering information. For an explanation of the abbreviated information, see "How to Order ERIC Documents," on page ix. The abstracts, of course, are not included in the bibliography. They can be located easily, however, through the use of their ED numbers in the USOE publications in which they first appeared. To facilitate finding these abstracts, a list of inclusive ED numbers for these publications appears on page vii. It should be noted that RIE includes abstracts of some documents that are available from publishers or distributors but not from EDRS. Such documents are not listed in this bibliography.

It is proposed that this bibliography be supplemented semi-annually. The first supplement, listing documents from the January 1969 through June 1969 issues of Research in Education, should be available by mid-August 1969. The documents in the present list were selected by hand and eye from computer-produced abstract collections. At some future time it will be possible to search by computer the entire ERIC file to produce up-to-date bibliographies of ERIC documents on selected topics of interest. This series will then be discontinued.
